French and English seminary for Young Ladies, corner of E and 3th streets, Washington city.

THE location of this seminary is one of the most desirable in the city, on account of its healthy and airy position. The house is large and commodious, with ample grounds and other facilities for amusement and recreation. The principal, so well and favorably known in this city, and in New York, from her long experience in teaching, hopes to give entire satisfaction to all who may conside their daughters to her care. She is a native of France, and familiar with its language and literature, and conversant with the best and casiest modes of imparting to her pupils a perfect knowledge of that language, so that they can not only read and write, but speak it fluently. She has secured able asristants for various departments, so that all branches of an English as well as French education will be thoroughly taught. Pupils who reside in the family have the peculiar advantages of hearing, and conversing at all times in the French language, and of perfecting themselves in the science of music, seing under the surveillance of an experienced eacher. The course of instruction, bestides the of of perfecting themselves in the science of music, sing under the surveillance of an experienced acher. The course of instruction, besides the sual elementary branches, includes all the higher unies pursued in the most approved northern semaries. The discipline is mild and affectionate, yet ecided, and is maintained by appeals to the affections and conscience of the pupil; it is designed, by a roper development and cultivation of the better unlittees of the heart, to bind more affectionately the upil to her teacher, and by it to secure obedience, as sound physical, moral, and intellectual improvement and culture, are the great objects desired, it is see aim of the principal not so much to crowd the emory with words, as to draw forth and train the al deduction will be made. The additional ges per quarter are for music, piano, and guitar, use of instrument, $2 50; vocal music, $5. To scholars, the charges for tuition in the first rement in French or English, are $10; ther, $15; in the second department first is French or English, $8; together, $12; in the class French or English $7; together in the third department, first class, French English $6; together $9; in the second department, first class, French gelish $6; together $9; in the second for English $6; together $8; Latin $4, r languages, drawing, painting, and dancing;

Pastimasters, &c., &c.

THE undersigned having been associated with the General Post Office Department for more than twenty years, and being perfectly familiar with its details of business, now offers his services to such of his old friends the contractors, as may be disposed paid to the religious as well as moral and intellectual instructions of the pupils, but no sectarian peculiarities are ever inculcated. Those residing in the family will attend such churches as their parents may select under the care of a teacher. They will attend the Episcopal church with the Principal, when no other directions are given. Any other information, and the most satisfactory references will be given a saving of the principal.

of his old friends the contractors, as may be disposed to patronize him, to transact any business which they may have from time to time with the department, and on such terms as will not fail to be acceptable to them. A letter to him at any time, pospoid, will be promptly attended to.

To applicants for the appointment of postmasters, he will, upon the remission of a fee of $5, postage paid, see that their petitions or recommendations are received and on file at the department, or, it not, give them due notice thereof, and also give attention to their interests until the decision of the Postmaster General is made, and then notify them of the appointing power. To such as may favor him in this particular branch of his agency, he can-not fail to give entire satisfaction.

The undersigned will also attend to any claims or other business which may be intrusted to his care and supervision, before any of the departments of the general government.
